

Plan 'Homecoming'

Night of Hagerstown Game on October 27, 1959

Revised 11/23/2014

Event To Include Queen, Parade, Halftime Show

Preparations are well underway to hold a "homecoming" celebration in connection with the Cambridge City-Hagerstown football game on the night of Tuesday, October 27, 1959

An extensive program in which both school and community are joining includes a parade, crowning of homecoming queen, dance and special show at halftime of the game. Four queen candidates already have been selected and voting will be conducted during the next few days.

The parade, under the direction of the Lincoln high school student council, will get underway at 6 p.m. Tuesday night on West Main St. near Dimond's restaurant and proceed to the school gym, where a short pep rally will be held.

Included in the parade will be a caravan of convertibles transporting the queen candidates and the 33 members of the varsity football team, coaches and student managers, as well as specially decorated cars headed by four cars representing each class, the Lincoln high band and others who wish to join the parade.

THESE LOVELY young ladies are vying for the honor of "homecoming queen" at Lincoln high school. Crowning of the lucky one will take place at the dance following the Cambridge City-Hagerstown football game on the Cambridge field the night of Tues., Oct. 27. The public is invited to vote for their favorites at any of four local business places. Shown above are the four girls and the classes they represent, left to right; Mary Alice Doll, senior, Barbara Ballard, junior, Carol Muckridge sophomore, and Pam Ginn, freshman.

Thanks to Mary Alice for this clipping and the Palladium-Item. On the back of the clipping is advertised:

Pork Roast for 19 ¢ / Lb.

Pork Cutlets for 69 ¢ / Lb.

Pork Sausage for 39 ¢ / Lb.

Pork Hocks for 19 ¢ / Lb.

Immediately before the game the starting lineups will be introduced. Nine seniors will be playing their last game. They are John Patterson, Jim Raby, Paul Close, Larry Stanley, Larry Waskom, Charles Carlson, Brent Bundy, Sylvan Schwegman and Lee Collins, who won't see action because of an injury received in mid-season.

Vote For Choices

Each class member voted for one girl from his or her own class. Then members of the football team voted for one girl from the top four in his own class. The top two finalists in each class were then voted on by the faculty.

Votes may be cast for the candidates for one cent a vote at the following stores: Brunner's drug store, Henderson's, Cutshaw's market and Doll's grocery. Voting boxes are located in each store.

A crown said to dazzle the onlooker has been procured for the queen. It is set with more than one hundred expertly styled rhinestones and is valued at $15.00. The regal token of queenly acclaim may be viewed in the high school show case.

Wampus Cats Whip Hagerstown Tigers, 34-6; End Football Season With 6-3 Record

Displaying one of their finest, if not the finest all around effort of the year coach Buzz Duff's Lincoln Wampus Cats closed the 1959 grid season with a scintillating 34-6 victory .over the arch-rival Hagerstown Tigers Tuesday night at Lincoln Memorial Field here.

Speed was a determining factor in the Cats margin over coach Bruce Hamman's eleven as right halfback

Chuck Carlson scored two TDs and shared rushing yardage laurels with quarterback Brent Bundy and left halfback Paul Close.

By Paul Seffrin

The win clinched fourth spot in the EIAC standings for Cambridge and gave them a season record of 6-3. The Tigers are 1-4 in the conference and 3-5 overall.

The Tiger-Cats battle was another classic despite the victory margin of the Red and Blue, with crisp blocking and savage tackling by both clubs.

The Cats scored their first touchdown midway of the first period after grabbing a Tiger quick punt on the 32. Three plays later halfback Chuck Carlson raced 12 yards on a reverse into the end zone. Quarterback Brent Bundy scored the extra point on a plunge.

Hagerstown scored on a 77 yard sustained drive on fine running by fullback Wendell Dale, quarterback Bill Murray, and halfback J. C. Smith and Kurt Wilkinson. Wilkinson getting the TD on the second play of the second quarter on a four yard off tackle slant. Dale's kick for extra point was wide.

The second score for the Lincolns came near the close of the period climaxing a 68 yard drive with Carlson snatching a 19 yard pass from Bundy for the six pointer. Halfback Paul Close added the extra point by plunge.

The Duffmen took a lot of 'starch' out of the Tiger hopes early in the third stanza when captain and tackle Jim Raby intercepted a Tiger jump pass on the 25 yard line. Fullback Larry Stanley subsequently bombing over from the two. Bundy's pass to end Jerry Thompson added the point-after-touchdown.

A 46 yard drive in four rushing plays accounted for the Wampus Cats fourth TD with Close getting it from the four: Bundy's pass for extra-point was no good.

The winners final tally came late in the fourth quarter with halfback Paul Schneider rambling 15 yards on a reverse for the TD. Close plunged the extra point across.

The Cambridge backs were able to chalk up sizeable gains on most rushing plays throughout the last half, while their defense contained the dangerous Tiger runners between the 30 yard lines except for a final drive that ended with the gun on the 18 yard mark.

Outstanding on defense for the winners was Raby, John Patterson, Sylvan Schwegman and Larry Waskom.
